

INTRODUCING EDMONDS JUDD

"Outstanding, long standing."

We are a well established legal practice, trusted by generations of clients, with a team of experts providing excellent solutions and service in a friendly manner.

Te Awamutu,
Otorohanga,
Waikato & Beyond

We are located in Te Awamutu and Otorohanga, but have clients throughout Waikato and further afield in New Zealand

The Edmonds Judd team is comprised of four partners and around 30 legal and support staff committed to providing legal services that meet our client's needs.

With a history in the region dating back over 100 years, Edmonds Judd has a well established and successful association with the communities and people of Te Awamutu and the Waikato.

Practice Areas

Although over the years Edmonds Judd has developed specialist skills in the rural business sector, we also provide expert legal advice in the following practice areas:

- Rural Property
- Commercial Property
- Residential Property
- Trusts
- Estate Administration
- Commercial & Company
- Employment
- Relationship Property
- Asset Protection
- Disputes Resolution
- Litigation

Our People

Our staff are a hardworking team of professionals who have a high level of technical skills. We actively encourage their development, in an environment which is relaxed and friendly.

How We Work

Just as important to us is the creation of a relaxed, supportive relationship with our clients, to relieve them of the worry and stress that sometimes accompanies legal processes. This is why Edmonds Judd is known as the "Trusted Friendly Professionals."

Resources

Edmonds Judd is a member of the NZ Law group which is made up of over 60 independent legal firms throughout New Zealand. This provides the firm with access to additional resources and skills if required.

Terms of Business

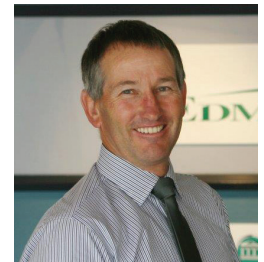

Like all professional businesses, we have terms of engagement explaining the terms and conditions upon which we provide legal services. These are available to be viewed on our website.

Talk to us

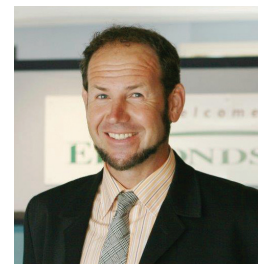

We believe that good communication and an understanding of each other's requirements are key to a successful professional relationship. We welcome feedback or questions at any time to ensure we provide you with best possible service.
